Camping and Parking

Camping overnight on the festival site is permitted for volunteers, vendors, artists, musicians, and their crews. If you plan to leave at any time during the festival once you are set up, you must note this on your application. If you do not, you will be placed in a location in the Market to accommodate your vehicle until break down on either Saturday evening or Sunday morning. If you are not planning on camping, there is a small day area parking for artists to come and go IF NECESSARY. Please, NO PETS PERMITTED!

Booth space

Each booth is 10'x10'. Booth spaces are all outdoors and accessible by car or van, with parking behind the majority of booths. Artists must provide their own canopy & display equipment, including tables, and chairs. Port-a-John's and electricity are provided, but you must bring your own extension cords. Non-potable water is available, please provide your own if you will need a significant amount.

Splitting a booth with another artist is permitted. If so, both artists must be juried and both artists must register separately.

Rules of Participation

- All work must be designed and executed by the artist.
- Imported or manufactured items, kits, or unauthorized copies of copyrighted images or logos will not be accepted.
- Pre-manufactured jewelry components are permitted only if they are minimal in the overall design of the piece.
- Prints by the exhibiting artist may be sold only in combination with original work.
- Artists are responsible for collecting 6% sales tax.
- Your name and images of your work may be used in promotional materials.
- We reserve the right to refuse work that is significantly different than is represented by your photos.
